Horace Greeley, whose personal hatred of and hostility to the distinguished Secretary of State is well known to every person in the country, pays the following handsome compliment to Governor Seward in the course of a long article on the Indiana election, in the Tribune of the 14th inst., and which contains numerous tributes from Democrats and mainly Joe:

Let us here say that we never presume most of the foreign gossip's statement with regard to Governor Seward's course during the last months of Buchanan's and the first few weeks of Lincoln's administration are at all to be relied on, or to form at all accurate his deductions thereon. What are isolated facts or transitory appearances may seem to indicate, many things are certainly true of Governor Seward: he is anti-slavery to the core; and he is intensely, passionately devoted to the Union. Doubtless, there have been moments, with him as with others, when these two impulses drew in different directions—when he felt obliged to soften or veil the manifestations of his love of universal freedom in deference to this unionism, or to observe the imputation of undervaluing the Union in deference to his devotion to human liberty. Doubtless, moreover, he has sometimes erred in judgment, (as who has not?) and especially in clinging in 1861 to the hope of a peaceful adjustment of our differences long after national grounds of hope had vanished. We have differed in the past; we shall doubtless differ in the future; but we do not the less cheerfully testify that there lack of devotion on his part to American Nationality or to Universal Freedom.

TELEGRAPH.

Chicago. Sept. 22.

An issue of a very dangerous one hundred dollar compound interest note has just been discovered at the treasury department. The face of the note is a most accurate imitation of the genuine, while the back is either an impression from the genuine government plate, or an electrotype from it. It seemed settled that either the original plates engraved by the American Bank Note Co., had been allowed to get into improper hands, or this fac simile was obtained by an electrotype process. Every exertion is being made by the treasury department to discover the mystery as to how this most dangerous counterfeit was made.

New York. Sept. 22.

The Tribune's special says, it has been decided by the Secretary of the Treasury, to anticipate the payment of the 5-20 bonds, which will become due on the first of November, and the same will be paid on, and after Sept. 20th, on presentation of the coupons to the Assistant Treasurer, or the designated depository to pay the interest on Government securities.

Kennedy Raynor, writes a letter from North Carolina, to a friend in this city, in which he states that unless the Government compels the rebels to treat freedmen with less cruelty, there will certainly be a rising of the negroes and a bloody retaliation there. He is preparing a letter for publication, in which he will give a full account of the true condition of affairs in North Carolina

Washington. Sept. 21.

The State Department are in receipt to-day, of voluminous dispatches from our Consuls at Constantinople, Smyrina, Port Mahon and Parcelona, giving further information of the ravages of the Cholera in various parts of Europe. The reports from Constantinople are most alarming; deaths from this disease having reached the number of two thousand per day. At Smyrina the Epidemic was checked sometime since, but has broken out afresh and is now spreading to a frightful extent.

New York. Sept 22.

The Republic, from New Orleans 13th has arrived. The Times' City of Mexico correspondent says, there is no change in the political aspect of affairs, but one thing is certain, the most zealous advocates of Maximilian are much discouraged. This is accounted for by the tremendous increase of the Liberal forces in every direction. The organization of the Confederates continues in the Imperial armies; they have now 5,000 and expect to raise the number to 20,000. Gwin is at the head of this movement.

Mrs. A. Meyer, of Washington Territory, who has procured the loan of the United States steam transport Continental, from the Government, wishing to send her to the Pacific, will sail on the 30th, with 700 women, from the orphan population of Massachusetts, who go to [illegible] Territory. Three hundred of these women are orphan daughters of dead soldiers; they are all good, industrious women, and there is no fear but they will secure good husbands and happy homes in the Territory.

The World has a sensation to-day in a narrative of a Piedmontese, named Franter, of the discovery by himself and others of immense quantities of diamonds and nuggets of gold, and a fabulous amount of other precious stones, including topaz, emerald, saphire's &c, in Mont Cenis tunnel. One of their number claimed the whole and was murdered by some others. All the excavating machinery was destroyed and the work stopped. The others went away with a large amount of gold. He hides more valuable gems, offering one for sale. At Susa he was accused of the murder of an English traveler, named Stonewald, in consequence of the resemblance between a diamond offered for sale and another one he had escaping from prison. He was again arrested at Marseilles previously handing his narrative to Mr Entoille, a citizen and was carried back to prison. French and Italian papers announce the stoppage of work on the tunnel by the superintendent of the tunnel Mr. Frousseo, a lawyer, before in is alledged the Taglione was sworn to the directorship of the tunnel. The Italian and French governments are said to be dividing the spoils.

Washington. Sept. 22

Our Consul at Smyrnia in a letter to the State Department, dated August 19th says: the Cholera mortality is steadily on the increase and its ravages are alarming. It is stated in another communication that the Cholera has appeared at Majorca and our Consul says this scourge is still driving Eastward and has no doubt but that a number of cases occured at Port Mahon. Our Consul at Barcelonia, reports to the State Department that from the 24th to the 31st of August, the number of deaths from Cholera in that city, averaged about twenty-four per day, and on the first of September, there were forty-two deaths from this disease.

Montreal. Sept. 22

Col. Rowland, as commissioner, of the Northern Pacific R R., is here, conferring with the Canadian Government and others, relative to uniting the British capital with the grants of the U. S. in construction of the Lake Superior and Puget Sound R. R. Col. A Dublin letter to the London Daily Telegraph says, there is reason to believe that the Government is giving to Fenianism that attention, which could more considerable official sagacity on that subject. The extent of the reorganization, especially in the county of Cork, is known to be very great and it is believed that cadres of formidable numbers, are in the [illegible] abroad, and are being secretly [illegible] brethren, and in support of this view it is mentioned that rifles are being sold throughout the country and disposed of one-third their apparent value. Now this would be just as good evidence to show that patriotic men purchasing a class of gun warranted to do no harm to any body except men who attempt to fire them. Almost every steamer which comes over from America, brings a handful, sometimes a good handful of disbanded Yankee soldiers. While there's nothing very unnatural in this considering that at the other side of the Atlantic, they have just got to the end of the war, in which the Irish bore a prominent part. The prevalence of Fenianism in Ireland, renders the arrival of the ex-warriors quite natural.

A letter from an American Fenian to the Dublin Freeman, contains the following story: The Fenian is an American organization commenced about seven years ago, for a very different object than the freeing of Ireland from English yoke. It is not entirely composed of Irish, and at the present moment, it numbers many thousand native Americans and Americanized Germans, and has a large treasury at its bureau. The exact number of enrolled members beginning last August, was two hundred and seventy three thousand five hundred and eighty-one, and notwithstanding the statements of Fenians and other gatherings in the United States that the object is to free Ireland it is not the case, as such statements are put forward to mislead the public and keep the authorities off the scent. The object is to conquer Canada and divide the immense territory of Great Britian on the American continent among the exile of Erin. The United States authorities do not only talk of the Fenian movement, but the movement is sanctioned by the Government and ruled by Seward, Secretary of State, and the laws and governing rules of the society are framed at Washington and printed in the government printing office, and sent out free through the mails to every exile and others in the Union.

The London Post says, the Fenians are commonly reported, to be disaffected to the British government, and to be engaged almost nightly in the performance of military evolutions, preparatory we presume, to the adopting by them of ulterior measures for gaining their ends; whatever there may be, the only practical consequences of a serious nature likely to arrive out of their silly drillings, are most likely to fall upon the Fenians themselves. The conspiracy is we believe greatly exagerated, yet it does exist; but no respectable Irishman of any property, intelligence, or position, would for a moment think of joining the illegal gatherings, which must necessarily end in the guilty parties being sent to the spike, on Portland Islands. Fenianism, it is throughout shown, has not a single respectable person connected with it. The most ignorant class of peasantry are the only standing members.

Papers to day contain an address to the Episcopal Convention of Virginia, strongly urging a reunion with the northern wing of the Church. Rev. Dr. Andrews, chairman of the special committee appointed to consider so much of the bishops introducing address, as refered to in the election of the diocese with the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the U. S. respectfully report that having had the document refered to them, under their most deliberate consideration, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions: That a cordial and concilitory course of our respected diocese, which the Bishop and other members of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, touching a reunion with the general convention of said Church, meets our cordial approbation; that the Council approves and affectionately responds to every sentiment of fraternal regards which has been manifested in the correspondence refered to. He is of the opinion which all parties interested may be presumed to desire, will be best accomplished, by referring the subject to the next general council. The report was adopted almost unanimously. The council then proceeded to elect the Clergy and Lay delegates to the Grand Council, which meets at Mobile, Ala., about the 1st of November.

The El Paso correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer gives currency to the report that Juarez designs abandoning his country for the present and coming to this city, where his wife and family have been for some time. Before leaving Chihuahua, he issued a protest against the Imperial occupation of Mexico, asserting his legitimate claims to the chief magistracy of the country. It is said that in this document Juarez announces himself a full-blooded Indian and a lineal descendant of the Montezumas.

Baltimore, Sept 18

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the I O. O F of the United States took place this morning, the Grand Sire, Isaac M. Veitch, presiding. Representations from nearly all the States in the Union and several of the British Provinces, were in attendance. The Atlantic Mail Co was, on Saturday, consolidated with the Pacific Mail Co., the latter paying four and a half million for ships and appertanences of the former. Rumor says there will be a weekly line to California in a few months at the outside.

The loss by fire yesterday reaches three millions. Nine thousand bales of cotton were destroyed, instead of nine hundred, as stated.

The Quaker City from Charleston, S C., the 16th.

The Courier contains Gov. Perry's message to the State Convention in which he acknowledges the death of slavery and counsels wise, justice and humane treatment of freedmen, by which they may become as strong attached to the whites as when they were slaves. The Legislation will be required to regulate the relative duties of the employer and employées. The Governor suggests changes in the State Constitution, making it more popular and republican in form. Its to the reproach of South Carolina, that it's less so than any other State in the Union, she is against extending suffrage to the freedmen in their present ignorance and degrading condition, as little less than folly and madness. He contends that this is the white man's government and white man only, and that the Supreme Court has decided that negroes are not citizens, and that each state has the unquestioned right to decide for herself this short note, and suggests the election of Governor, Members of Congress and Legislature and Presidential electors be made directly by the people and the Legislature should be elected and convened in season to order the election for Congressmen before the first Monday in December. The future he says will be bright and glorious, as long as civilization continues, and this Great Republic will flourish and increase in numbers wealth and grandeur, and in less than 10 years we shall realize in the loss of slavery, a blessing in disguise to ourselves and our children. He notifies the convention of the re-establishment of civil law and courts, and the withdrawal of negro troops from the interior to garrisons on the coast. The presence of white troops will be necessary for some to enforce the relative duties of freedmen and their employers.

Queen Victoria would return to England from Germany on the 8th. The annual meeting of the British Association for the advancement of science has commenced at Birmingham.

The Paris Moniteur is highly satisfied with the manner in which the people and press of England and France are commenting on mutual interest and the uniformity of their principles in matters of public law. They rivalled one another in the disinterestedness to insure the independence of the Ottoman Empire and when France had freed Italy, England determined to no longer retain the Islands and consented to restore them to their original nationalities.

They have no commisary stores nor is there any flour, rice, sugar, tea, coffee soap, salt or bottle wine, or, brandy and have no camp equipage of any kind and in fact destitute of everything.

Paraguayane soldiers, beside faring so primitively on sheep and cattle, his oxen killing, gets no pay and no share of the plunder, they march and fight like a machine. The allies on the contrary, have comparatively perfect discipline. The conflict will be waited for with great interest. The war begins seriously to effect the business of this city, the value of real estate has abated and stock for farms has greatly fallen in price. There is a great scarcity of work hands, as thousands entered the army.

The difficulty between the loyal and disloyal Creeks is amicably adjusted. The rebel delegates of the various tribes represented, have signed the treaty with the government, with a note appended, claiming the non forfeiture of lands, annuity, &c. The committee appointed to confer with the Choctaws and Chickasaws, relative to a treaty for the recognition policy of the government of Southern Cherokees, have submitted a report stating that the committee waited upon the Northern Cherokees to arrange their difference, asking them to recommend the Cherokee council to repeal their confiscation laws, who agreed to lay the matter before the council. The same delegation reported that about six thousand Choctaw are in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nation, on Red river in destitute circumstances, and had asked the council for relief.

The commissioners refused to recognize John Ross, as chief of the Cherokee nation, on account of duplicity and bad faith with the government. A paper has been submitted by the loyal Cherokee delegation, asking the commissioners to receive their actions.

There is some doubt existing as to the course the Government would pursue as to the payment of the Pacific Railroad Bonds. The President of the bank of the Metropolis addressed a note to the Secretary of Treasury on the subject today and received the following reply:

Treasury Department 1865

Sir: [illegible] whether the obligation of the Government to pay at maturity its bonds issued under acts of July 1st '62 and July 2nd '64 to aid in the construction of the Pacific Railroad is absolute, or contingent upon the performance of the Railroad corporation, of its obligations is at hand and from examination of the terms of the acts and the various provisions therein made, in respect to the issue of the bonds I am satisfied that the faith of the Government is pledged to their redemption, in the hands of any lawful holder and without regard to whether the obligations of the Railroad company are ultimately fulfilled or not.

$250,000,000
SECURITY MARKET

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and constitute One Hundred Million Dollars in currency, bearing interest at seven three-tenths per centum per annum. known as the Gold bearing Bonds.

They are exempt from taxation of every description, both National, State and local, except stamp duties, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds from County, and Municipal taxation or assessment upon the holder's interest therein. They are payable in coin at the end of three years from date, and are convertible at the option of the holder into Six per cent. Gold Bonds, redeemable in coin at the end of twenty years from date. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note which may be cut off and collected through any Bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent, is computed on

One cent per day on a $50 note,
Two cents per day on a $100 note,
Ten cents " " "	$500 "
Twenty cents " " "	$1,000 "
One Dollar " " "	$5,000 "

Notes of all the Denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The notes of this third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirties already sold except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when the subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continually after that date.

The only change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with a six per cent in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230 000 000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it being absorbed will all be subscribed for within sixty days when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par, Subscribers will select their own agents in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which the receive orders.
